LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia at its next session, on behalf of the City of Vancouver, for an Act to amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1921," in the manner following, to provide by such amendments for the following powers, that is to say:—

1. To amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act" to provide for the cancelling of election proceedings on the death of any candidate nominated before the close of the polls, and for fixing another day for the nomination and election of a candidate for the office to which such candidate had been nominated.

2. To amend the said Act to provide for including on the assessment roll for the purpose of information and record all exempt parcels of land in addition to each and every rateable parcel of land, and to authorize the Assessment Commissioner and assistants to enter at all reasonable times upon any property or premises subject to assessment in order to ascertain a proper appraisal of the land and improvements thereon.

3. To amend the said Act to provide for the assessment of the right or interest of any occupant of Crown lands where the same are occupied otherwise than in an official capacity, on the basis that such lands shall be taxed at their actual cash value, as set out in section 39 of said Act, as if the occupant were the actual owner thereof during the period of such occupancy.

4. To amend the said Act to provide that notice of complaint in respect to the assessment roll shall be given in writing to the City Clerk at least fourteen clear days before the date appointed for the sitting of the Court of Revision.

5. To amend the said Act to provide for the establishment and constitution of an Assessment Board of Appeals having appellate jurisdiction over decisions of the Court of Revision in respect to rateable property in lieu of a Judge of the Supreme Court, such Board of Appeal to consist of three expert valuers.

6. To amend the said Act to provide for the assessing of and levying rates on the poles, cables, conduits, and wires of any telephone, telegraph, electric light, or electric power company, and the tracks, rails, poles, and wires of any tramway company, and the materials, buildings, and plant used in connection therewith, and the pipes, wires, tanks, and reservoirs of any gas or heating company.

7. To amend the said Act to provide for prohibiting or regulating, controlling, licensing, limiting, and restricting the lands, sites, links, or grounds used in connection with miniature golf-courses, or golf-courses of less than 20 acres in area.

8. To amend the said Act to provide for installing and locating traffic-markers and traffic-control signals and indicators in, on, or about any part of any street or public place.

9. To amend the said Act to provide for aiding and assisting by annual money grant or otherwise, as the Council may deem expedient, any organization, institution, or association organized or incorporated for the purpose of creating or establishing and disbursing a general community fund for the benefit of charity or charitable institutions or hospitals within the city.

10. To amend the said Act to provide for regulating, controlling, limiting, or prohibiting objectionable or unnecessary noises in places of amusement or in other public or private places or premises.

11. To amend the said Act to provide for regulating the collection and disposal of waste materials and junk, or any noxious or unsanitary or objectionable material, and to provide for the cleansing and sterilizing thereof.

12. To amend the said Act to provide for prohibiting, controlling, and regulating the use of fumigating-chemicals and poison-gas, and the storage or transportation of the same.

13. To amend the said Act to provide for prohibiting or controlling and regulating the installation, construction, or use of domestic refrigerator plants in which any poisonous refrigerant is used, and swimming-pools or tanks for public use.

14. To amend the said Act to provide that where one side only of any street has already been paved and the cost thereof assessed as a local improvement against the property benefited on both sides of such street, or has been paid out of general funds of the city, the Council may, by a two-thirds vote of the members present, on the recommendations of the City Engineer and City Comptroller, and without adopting the formalities required by this Act or any by-law, carry out similar work as a local improvement on the opposite side of such street, and may assess the cost thereof on the property benefited thereby on both sides of any such street.

15. To amend the said Act to provide for the continuous auditing of all accounts affecting the city.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 8th day of December, 1930.

J. B. WILLIAMS,
Solicitor for the Applicant the City of Vancouver.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Bartram Properties, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 2nd day of December, 1930.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares.

The address of its registered office is 1280 Homer Street, Vancouver, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, and any estate, right, title, or interest therein situate within the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere in the Dominion of Canada, and all kinds of personal property, and to deal with and turn the same to account as the Company may deem expedient:

(b.) To build, remodel, or rebuild in whole or in part any buildings on the said lands, with or without fixtures, plant, machinery, and other personal chattels, and to alter, repair, and maintain the same, and to lease or rent the said lands, buildings, fixtures, and chattels or any part or parts thereof, and generally to deal with the said property in any way that shall be deemed to be to the Company's advantage:

(c.) To sell, either for cash or for deferred payments, exchange, lease, and otherwise deal with its lands, rights, or other property or effects or any part thereof or its undertaking or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold the same or otherwise dispose of such shares and debentures as may be deemed most expedient:

(d.) To lend money on the security of, or purchase, or invest in contracts constituting a first charge on land mortgages, and hypothecs upon freehold or leasehold real estate or other removable property:

(e.) To sell any mortgages, hypothecs, or other security or securities either in whole or in part, and to carry out any such sale by assignment or otherwise covering the whole or undivided interest therein on such terms and conditions as the directors may deem advisable.

None of such subclauses or objects therein specified or powers thereby conferred shall be deemed to be subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause within the Dominion of Canada, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

The Company has excluded from its memorandum of association clause (u) of subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act."

To obtain by purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and hold, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, real estate, fishing-stations, fishing rights and privileges, timber claims or licences to cut timber, foreshore rights, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, refrigerating plants, fertilizer, cannery, salt, and oil works, buildings, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, or real or personal property as may be deemed advisable, and to equip, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein:

(g.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, construct, carry out, lease, maintain, repair, alter, improve, manage, work, and control any roadways, tramways, wharves, fishing-stations, canneries, fertilizer, salt, and oil works, machinery, warehouses, ships, steam vessels and boats, dwelling-houses, offices, buildings, and other works and conveniences which may seem, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects of the Company:

(h.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(i.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for legalizing any of the acts, contracts, or agreements of the Company, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(j.) To buy and sell, at wholesale and retail, and to handle and deal in, as merchants, brokers, or agents, nets, twines, ropes, fishermen's supplies, general merchandise, marine hardware, and ship's supplies, stores, and provisions, and to that end to own, lease, build, or otherwise acquire, use, and enjoy sales-rooms, warehouses, and other facilities:

(k.) To own, and operate ships and vessels of every kind, including fishing-vessels:

(l.) To engage in the fishing business and do all things necessary to the conduct thereof:

(m.) To borrow money, and to execute notes or other evidence of debt, and to mortgage or otherwise hypothecate the credit or property of the Company to secure the payment thereof:

(n.) To hold stock or shares in other corporations:

(o.) To acquire agencies for all kinds of commodities, goods, wares, merchandise, properties (real and personal), rights (corporeal or incorporeal), and generally to buy and sell, deal, trade in, exchange, and barter all kinds of properties and estates and rights, real and personal, movable and immovable, and otherwise whatsoever:

(p.) To import and export, buy, sell, and deal in goods and commodities of all kinds and descriptions whatsoever, including all the above-enumerated kinds of properties and in all other kinds of property whatsoever, and to do so either as principals or as agents; to act as commission agents and brokers generally; to engage in the manufacture and production of all kinds of products of wood, iron, and of every kind of minerals or metals whatsoever; to acquire sites either by purchase or otherwise, and to build and maintain and equip warehouses and buildings for the reception and storage of goods, wares, and merchandise and other commodities, and to carry on a general storage business; to acquire agencies for the sale and manufacture and deal in all kinds of goods and chattels and effects irrespective of the nature or composition of such commodities:

(q.) To engage in the business of general importers and exporters of all kinds of products and commodities manufactured or otherwise, said commodities not being restricted to articles or commodities used in connection with ship-chandlery business, nor restricted in any other manner, the intention being to give the Company power to deal in all kinds of lawful commodities:

(r.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purpose of and to produce the objects and business of the Company:

(s.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company, as fully or partially paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, and to remunerate by the issue of fully or partially paid-up shares, or otherwise, any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or the conduct of its business, or in procuring the Company to be incorporated:

(t.) To acquire by purchase, record, or otherwise water powers, water records, or water privileges, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(u.) To procure the Company to be registered in any other Province of the Dominion of Canada or in any other country:

(v.) To manufacture and produce and trade and deal in all plant, machinery, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such patents, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, and the like aforesaid.
